State Guard Notes.

The Anson Veterans, of Wadesboro, (Co. K, 2d Reg't N. C. S. G.) are in a very flourishing condition. Despite the duliness and closeness of the times the company expect to appear next Fair with 50 men.

At the meeting of the Goldsboro Rifles, (Co. D., 1st Reg't,) on Thursday evening, W. F. Kornegay was unanimously elected Captain of the company. With an officer of such ability, energy and means, at its head, the command is now on the high road to prosperity. They intend bringing 50 men to the next Encampment.

An excursion train will be run by companies B. and C. of the 4th battalion, N. C. S. G., from Newbern to Goldsboro and return, on the 7th and 8th of May, 1878. Companies A. and D. of the 4th battalion, of Raleigh, and the companies of the 5th battalion in Wilmington, are expected to be present. The Newbern Rifle Cadets will give a grand target practice. The company has on hand a handsome set of prizes.

The Chicago Times publishes a long dispatch from Detroit, showing that Bishop McCoskry, of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan, was some time ago discovered to have been on terms of criminal intimacy with a young woman named Richards, of Detroit. She had been employed by him as a writer in his private study, where the intimacy began. A printer named George Mc-Connell, a friend of Miss Richards, became jealous of the old Bishop, and through him private letters in the Bishop's handwriting, addressed to the woman, full of expressions and allusions which were unmistakable admissions of guilty connection, reached members of the vestry of the Bishop's Church. The Bishop was confronted with evidences of his guilt and his resignation demanded. The Bishop finally complied with this demand and resigned about a month ago, with the understanding that the scandal should be suppressed. He is now about to sail for Europe with his wife. The young woman was some months ago married off by the Bishop to a man in Detroit, who was deceived into the belief that she was the Bishop's relative and ward. It is hinted that there will be developments implicating the Bishop in other scandalous connections of a similar character.

[The Right Reverend Samuel A. Mc-Coskry, D.D., D. C. L., mentioned above, was the first Bishop of the diocese of Michigan, and resigned only five weeks ago. Next to Bishop Smith, of Kentucky, he was the senior Bishop of the Protestant Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States.

CINCINNATI, O., April 17. Henrietta Wood, an old colored woman, who was kidnapped in this city twenty-five years ago, carried into Kentucky and sold into slavery, was to-day awarded a verdict of $2,500 damages against Zeb Ward, who was at the time of her abduction the Sheriff of Campbell county, Ky. The woman was in Texas when slavery was abolished, and coming to this city in 1871, instituted proceedings against Ward in the United States Court, with the above result. It was shown in testimony that Ward and others induced her in April, 1853, to cross over the river, where she was seized and, after being held seven months, was sold to a Frankfort slave trader, who, in turn, sold her to a Mississippi planter for $1,050. For fifteen years she remained in slavery under cruel task-masters, until emancipated by President Lincoln's proclamation. This is the first slave case that has been tried here for many years and excited much interest. Ward is now a wealthy man, and the old colored woman will secure the money.

At the Easter Reception of the Cardinals, Saturday, Pope Leo dwelt upon the strength and vitality of the Ponti ficate. He said: "The war which has been declared against the Papacy from the earliest times continues with undiminished fierceness. Trusting in God, we are ready to carry on the warfare and to uphold the rights of the Church."
The Pontiff concluded by expressing hope that the erring children would finally submit.
